

Pastor Jeff's Daily Devotion
Day 24
February 3, 2010

Day Twenty-Four

Phil. 2:1-4

¹If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from His love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, ²then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. ³Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. ⁴Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others.

There is a list here of things with which Christ impacts our lives.

Consolation in Christ: that is being made right in Christ.

Comfort of Love: Being loved unconditionally.

Fellowship in the Spirit: His Spirit that now lives in us.

If any affection and mercy: Being loved by him and the mercy that we all need.

Since all these things are true...

We should be like minded and live in unity. The bible speaks so much to us as fellow believers about living in unity. The key to living in unity is humility. As I have studied the scriptures through the years, humility seems to be the greatest of virtues. There is nothing that God hates more than pride and nothing He wants more in us than selflessness. Since all of our needs are met in Him, we should dedicate ourselves to meeting the needs of others.

Lord, teach me to be selfless. Teach me to truly care for the needs of others above my own because Jesus thought of my needs above thinking of himself.