

Pastor Jeff's Daily Devotion
Day 20
January 30, 2010

Day Twenty

Philippians 1:7-11

<sup>7</sup>It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart; for whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me. <sup>8</sup>God can testify how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, <sup>10</sup>so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, <sup>11</sup>filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

The prayer for all of us is that our love would abound; grow to overflowing. Love abounds here is knowledge and depth of insight. Growing and maturing in our relationship with God together produces a love that abounds. This will produce the ability to discern what is best. Wisdom is not only knowing good from evil but also knowing good from best. The other result is living pure and blameless. Pure in His sight and blameless in the world, showing the fruit that He grows in us. A tree grows fruit according to what kind of tree that it is. When we are in Him, we will produce the fruit of righteousness that only He can produce.

O Lord, let me today meditate on You and the fruit that only You can produce in all of us.