1. Good sportsmanship is to be stressed at all times
2. Encouragement and example are the appropriate teaching methods for this level of competition.
3. Each practice and game will conclude with an 'encouragement huddle'. Devotions, prayer and positive reinforcement are essential elements of this huddle time.
4. Teaching skills and improving self-confidence are necessary for the growth of each athlete.
5. Tobacco, alcohol, profanity and slang are not to be used by any coach.
6. This is a ministry opportunity, sharing Christ and leading children and parents to the Lord will be a top priority.
7. Head coaches must be members of First Baptist Church of Indian Rocks.
8. Being on time to begin practices and games as well as ending practices and games essential.
9. A spirit of cooperation and 'teamwork' is necessary to make this league a success. Coaches should foster healthy relationships with parents, officials and other players by being courteous and kind in all their dealings.
10. Healthy competition and learning to deal properly with winning and losing provide great learning experiences that each player and parent can carry with them throughout life.

Coaches will be required to attend all team practices, games and be responsible to return all equipment they use. There will be a "Coaches Clinic" conducted at the same time the player's clinic is going on, all coaches are required to attend this clinic in order to coach a team.

I understand and agree to abide by each of the above principles of the Recreation Outreach Ministry of First Baptist Church of Indian Rocks. I will follow the guidelines of the coaches manual and the rules of the league and help foster the proper learning environment for all of the players and parents involved.
